

Application for a licence to provide podcasts

Send us your licence application duly completed by post or by e-mail at podcast@unisono.be

Do you want to offer podcasts on your website or platform that contain music or spoken texts by literary or theatre authors? If so, you can apply for a licence through Unisono for the (inter)national repertoire represented by Sabam. Copyrights will thereby be properly arranged and you will contribute to a sustainable ecosystem in which the authors and composers of those texts and/or music receive fair compensation for the use of their works. Please check our general terms and conditions.
